Fairfield Sentry is a single strategy fund, hedged equity (split strike conversion strategy). I have attached the brochure which describes the strategy. Chester and Irongate are both fund of funds that invest into 40-60 managers each. I have attached the FOF book, as well. I have asked our FOF team to advise on the exact number of managers each FOF is invested in currently and will respond with the information soon.

Best,

Lauren

Thanks for the info Lauren. I was not able to find Sentrys asset/strategy allocation. Also, how many managers do you have in each of these funds?
